

Note on the Handling of Personal Information by ASP-DAC

September 1, 2007

The ASP-DAC 2008 Conference Secretariat (ASP-DAC 2008), which regards the handling of personal information by participants to be of prime importance, is implementing the following personal information protection policies.

Those who register to participate in ASP-DAC 2008 are considered to have agreed with these policies, so please read them carefully.

1. Personal information obtained through the registration process will be used to provide guidance on the management and implementation of ASP-DAC 2008 and information on future ASP-DAC events.
2. The registrant's permission will be sought in advance for any uses of personal information provided to ASP-DAC 2008 other than stipulated above.
3. Efforts will be made to prevent the disclosure, loss, destruction and/or damaging of personal information provided to ASP-DAC 2008.
4. The personal information will be used only for ASP-DAC 2008 conference.
5. For inquiries related to the disclosure, revision, deletion and cessation of usage of personal information provided to ASP-DAC, please contact the Secretariat:

ASP-DAC 2008 Conference Secretariat
Genicom Co., Ltd.
5F Daehan Bldg., #1018 Dunsan-dong
Seo-gu, Daejeon, Korea, 302-120
Tel: +82-42-472-7460 / Fax: +82-42-472-7459
E-mail: aspdac2008@aspdac2008.com
Web site: <http://www.aspdac.com/aspdac2008>

Revisions might be made to the aforementioned personal information protection policies in line with amendments to related laws and regulations in the future. In case such changes are made, notification will be made immediately on the ASP-DAC 2008 website and sent via e-mail to all registered participants. Such changes will become valid starting from the day the related amendments officially take effect.

General Chair
ASP-DAC 2008